What is your favorite part about working at Giant?
My favorite part about working at Giant is the ability to impact people's lives. I have met many wonderful associates that have shared their personal stories in which I can relate to and sometimes can offer advice or resources.

How did you get involved with Quality Trust?
Due to my campaign on Autism Acceptance at Giant and an open seat on the board of directors for Quality Trust, I was identified as a candidate for the role. As I learned more about Quality Trust, I was eager and willing to join the board and help make an impact. I knew that my work with Autism Acceptance and Giant was not enough. I currently am a board member for Quality Trust and my goal with is to keep pushing to create a more inclusive world for people with disabilities.

What is/what does Quality Trust do?
Quality Trust is an advocacy organization committed to making a difference for children, youth and adults with developmental disabilities. We make sure that people with disabilities are a part of and have equal access to our communities, schools and workforce. We want to make sure their lives are safe, accessible, and as full as possible.

How could someone get involved?
We need volunteers to serve on our Board and committees, to assist us in making our events successful, and to connect people with disabilities in the community. The involvement of the community in our advocacy work is critical as we focus on the inclusion of people with disabilities in our communities.

How can people make their communities more inclusive?
They should not make assumptions about what people with disabilities need, or what they can do and accomplish. People can be patient and thoughtful and really listen to whether a person needs help and, if so, what kind. Be the encouragement you would want for someone you love in your life who needs some support to get it done; and that's each of us almost every day.

What is your favorite thing about working at Giant?
I like that the Giant offers equal opportunity to everyone, even people of disabilities, and I really like that everyone I work with is very respectful and treats me like any other average Jane and/or John Doe.
